CURRENT POSITION

Assistant Professor (2015 – Present):   Boğaziçi University, Department of Foreign Language Education
Secondary Appointment (2017- Present): Boğaziçi University, M.A. Program in Cognitive Science

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Linguistics (2014):   The Graduate Center, The City University of New York, New York.
Dissertation: The interplay of syntactic parsing strategies and prosodic phrase lengths in processing Turkish sentences.
Advisor: Janet Dean Fodor

M.Phil. in Linguistics (2011):   The Graduate Center, The City University of New York, New York.
Paper: Processing prosody and morpho-syntax (in Turkish)
Advisor: Janet Dean Fodor

M.A. in Linguistics (2009):   The Graduate Center, The City University of New York, New York.
Paper: Anaphora in Turkish
Advisor: Marcel den Dikken

M.A. in TESOL (2007):   Boğaziçi University, Istanbul, Turkey.
Thesis: Syntactic processing in second language acquisition of English
Advisor: Ayşe Gürel

B.A. in TESOL (2004):   Boğaziçi University, Istanbul, Turkey.

RESEARCH PROJECTS

Active

Researcher: MultiplEYE Cost Action: Enabling multilingual eye-tracking data collection for human and machine language processing research (EU Cost Action, PIs: Nora Hollenstein & Lena Jaeger)

Researcher: MECO: The multilingual eye-tracking corpus (The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada Partnered Research Training Grant and several other international funders, PIs: Victor Kuperman & Noam Siegelman)

Researcher: Predictive processing in English-Turkish sight translation (Boğaziçi University Research Foundation, PI: Ena Hodzik)

Principal Investigator: Use of real-world knowledge and syntactic detail in language comprehension by individuals with autism spectrum disorder

Principal Investigator: Does language anxiety affect the use of prosodic cues in syntactic disambiguation?

Completed

Principal Investigator: Processing negative polarity items in L1 and L2 Turkish (TÜBİTAK 1001 Grant, ₺1,523,321 (~ $60,000)

Principal Investigator: An investigation of working memory and prosodic phrasing in processing complex sentences in the second language (Boğaziçi University Research Foundation, ₺32,312 (~$6,882))

Principal Investigator: Syntactic and metric constraints in silent reading in Turkish: An eye-tracking study (Boğaziçi University Research Foundation Start-up Fund (₺175,000 (~ $60,000))

Principal Investigator: An investigation of working memory, prosodic phrasing, and lexico-semantic information on second language processing

Principal Investigator: Prosodic disambiguation in processing morphology in Turkish
